Army and Navy Favor Organization to Control All Amateur Sports.

TO STANDARDIZE RULES

Secretary Weeks Sends Proposal for a National Association.

A movement is on foot to standardize all amateur sports. The Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy have recommended to the president of the American Olympic committee for favorable consideration a constitution for an organization to be called the National Athletic Federation of the United States of America.

Secretary Weeks says in his letter: "Replying to your letter of the 25th of October on the matter of organization of the American Olympic Association, I am enclosing herewith copy of amendments to the constitution which was prepared by your reorganization committee."

The enclosures herewith have been carefully prepared by a committee of army and navy officers and have my entire approval as meeting the exigencies of this situation. In submitting the proposed constitution herewith I wish to assure you of my keen interest in the matter at hand and my desire to assist in the organization of a continuing agency to control and conduct our future participation in the Olympic games.

However, in view of the great importance which physical education and mass participation, as in the sports and games, has assumed in our national life, I believe that the problem which confronts us is a greater one than our mere special participation in the quadrennial games of the International Olympic Committee, and that we should take the present occasion to lay the foundation of a nation-wide federation which shall embrace all those permanent organizations in the United States devoted to amateur sports and physical education.

As you know, the army has recently announced a policy with regard to athletics which provides that they shall be conducted on an amateur basis, and which further states that it is the desire of the army to encourage the participation of its members in local meets and competition conducted by civilian agencies. It is my idea in submitting the constitution herewith to provide for a national federation of all organizations devoted to amateur sports within which each one of the constituent members would recognize, for the purpose of competition and games, the amateur standards of all other members of the federation.

In addition to the above I have a still wider purpose in mind. Much has recently been said relative to the formation of some governmental agency which will have for its purpose the coordination of all national activities devoted to physical education. As nothing concrete has been done in this matter, I, in conjunction with the Secretary of the Navy, take pleasure in recommending to your favorable consideration my underlying purpose as outlined generally in the proposed constitution herewith. I believe that the organization which will bring into being, I feel certain that such an organization which has as its broad purpose the physical education of every man, woman and child in this country, and to which all governmental agencies could grant their unqualified approval, will go a long way toward accomplishing the object which I have in mind.

Finally, in view of the urgent need which I think exists for such an organization as the constitution herewith contemplates, and to which I must instruct my representatives at the coming meeting to refrain from committing the army to join any organization whose scope is not wider than that outlined in your proposed constitution.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) JOHN W. WEEKS,
Secretary of War.

Professional Football Game.

The New York Giants, who practically clinched the professional football championship of the East by beating Jimmy Jemal's Colts, are ready for the Orange A. A. at Commercial Field to-morrow.
